

Public Health Seminar Series

“Communicable Diseases: Public Health Response and Investigation”

Classroom and Livestream Event

Sonya E. Frontin, MPH

Epidemiologist, Regional Epidemiology Program

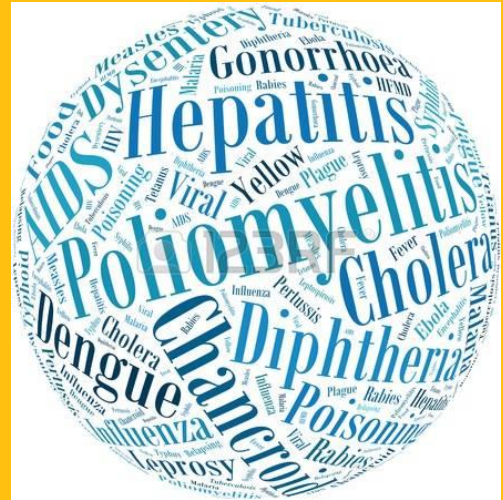

EEOH/ Communicable Disease Service

New Jersey Department of Health

Date: November 22, 2016

Time: 10:30 AM – 12:00 PM

Location: 683 Hoes Lane West, Piscataway, NJ

Target Audience: Health Officers, Nurses, Epidemiologists, Health Educators,
Public Health Planners

Attending in person: Simply choose “Log-In to Register” on NJLMN

(You may need to create an account on the NJLMN if you do not already have one)

Viewing via Live-Stream: Simply click here “Live Stream Registration”

Objectives

Participants will be able to:

- Understand public health principles and structure at the federal, state, and local level.
- Explain local and state public health partners and how NJ state laws and regulations guide communicable disease response and investigation.
- Review a case study of a communicable disease outbreak using applicable public health and epidemiology principles.

CEU/CHES/MCHES/Nursing Credits

Participants who complete this educational program in person or by simulcast will be awarded 1.5 New Jersey Public Health Continuing Education Contact Hours (CEs). Rutgers-SPH has been approved by the New Jersey Department of Health and Senior Services as a provider of NJ Public Health Continuing Education Contact Hours (CEs). Those eligible for CHES credits will receive 1.5 credits, as well as those eligible for Nursing Contact Hours will receive 1.5 credits.